There are more than 50
Barn Quilts to find in Kankakee County!

BARN QUILTS

A self-guided driving tour

The colorful Barn Quilts welcome visitors to explore Kankakee County's scenic countryside. These 8-foot by 8-foot quilt patterns at select homesteads share a unique story of growth, celebration, toil and tradition.

Learn more at VisitKankakeeCounty.com/BarnQuilts

The Barn Quilt concept originated in Ohio and Kankakee County adopted the initiative in 2008. In cooperation with the Kankakee County Convention & Visitors Bureau, University of Illinois Extension and Kankakee Quiltmakers, local artists and barn owners worked together to create a county-wide tour of rural splendor.

To learn more about the Barn Quilts of Kankakee County, contact us to request a free Barn Quilt Tour Guide.

Empowered Women, Empower the Community

These local businesswomen prove that they are as comfortable with tattoo ink as with cake fondant. From the book shelf to the barber’s chair — you’ll find that their shops empower the mind, body and spirit.

DressWell Boutique & e.volve clothing co. ▶

“I started my boutique business to create a life centered around the things that bring me joy: fashion, fun and community. Five years and three storefronts later, we couldn’t be more thankful to be helping women feel good about themselves, in their clothes, in Kankakee County.”

— Christy Smith, Find us on Facebook!

Electric Lady Lounge ▶

“I am proud to own and operate Kankakee’s premier woman-owned tattoo studio providing tattooing for all bodies and skin tones. We are empowered women providing our artistic expertise to Kankakee County helping people find confidence in their skin.”

— Bri Haug, electricladytattoo.com

▲ Haigh Quarry

"Divers come from all over to scuba dive at Haigh Quarry. I am proud to be part of a community that pushes women to test their limits and grow. Kankakee County offers so much opportunity for us and other women-owned businesses."

— Tina Haigh, haighquarry.com

◀ Heather's Custom Cakes

"Being a woman business owner, I have the opportunity to inspire other women to do the same. The path to running a successful bakery is rarely without obstacles but I am proud to encourage others to pursue their passions and dreams."

— Heather Dmitrasz, Find us on Facebook!

◀ Rubber Rose Books & Print

"I think reading books makes us better humans and wanted to start a business as a 'force for good' in my hometown. Rubber Rose Books & Print gives me the opportunity to help shape the community that shaped me."

— Melissa Zigrissi, rubberrosebooks.com

◀ Moon Cookie Gallery

"Watching small businesses thrive is important in any community, but as a Kankakee County native, I feel proud to share my passion for art and retail with others through Moon Cookie Gallery. I hope my story empowers more local women-owned businesses."

— Natalie Seaton, mooncookiegallery.com

◀ Urban Barbershop Co.

"I am proud to be a woman-owned barber business in Kankakee County and love being in a position to help and support other women around me. We are often mothers, wives and caretakers and owe it to ourselves to make our own dreams come true."

— Jess Wright, urbanbarbershopco.com
